

Power BI Visualizations

To create meaningful and interactive visualizations in Power BI using the cleaned Sales dataset.

The following five visualizations are created:

The Power BI report includes five meaningful visualizations that provide different perspectives on the sales data. The charts help identify category performance, monthly sales trends, sales contribution, detailed records, and key business KPIs, making the data easier to understand and analyze.